Who we are:

The Gem and Mineral Society of the Virginia Peninsula, Inc., is a very active group of adults and children with serious interests in rocks, gems, minerals, fossils, and related sciences. We welcome new members who share our love for “rocks”, whether they are huge “yard rocks”, or tiny crystals and minerals. Our membership consists of people with highly diversified backgrounds, with and without prior knowledge of what a mineral is, or a cabochon.

We are fortunate to have many members (including several geologists) that are happy to share with the membership their knowledge about rocks, gems, and minerals. If you love rocks, you should become a member of GMSVP.

Come join our society, and join us at our monthly meetings held from 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM on the first Thursday of each month in the Visitor Center of the Sandy Bottom Nature Park, 1255 Big Bethel Road, Hampton, VA.

Note: This is not our mailing address. See top of page for GMSVP mailing address.
